The corrected release reads:

ROBERT HERDMAN ELECTED TO CUMMINS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Cummins Inc. (NYSE: CMI) announced today that Robert K. Herdman, Managing Director of Kalorama Partners LLC, a Washington D.C.-based consulting firm, has been elected to the Company's Board of Directors.

Herdman brings extensive accounting and financial regulatory experience to the Cummins Board. Prior to joining Kalorama Partners, he served as Chief Accountant to the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) from October 2001 to November 2002, where he was the principal advisor to the SEC on accounting and auditing issues.

Before moving to the SEC, Herdman was Vice Chairman of Professional Practices for Ernst and Young's Assurance and Advisory Business Services practice. He also has held a number of other leadership roles at Ernst and Young during his career.

"Bob's wealth of business and accounting knowledge and his experience working with financial regulators make him a valuable addition to our Board," said Cummins Chairman and CEO Tim Solso. "Cummins is committed to complete transparency in its financial reporting, and we are counting on Bob to provide valuable counsel in this and other important areas."

Herdman becomes the 10th member of the Cummins Board and he will serve on the Audit, Finance and Technology and Environment committees. His term begins immediately and he will stand for re-election at the Company's annual meeting in May. All Cummins directors are elected annually.

Herdman also is a member of the Board of HSBC Finance Corp. and HSBC North America Holdings, where he chairs the Audit committee. He earned his bachelor's degree from DePaul University in Chicago in 1969. He and his wife, Marikay, live in Darien, Conn. They have two adult children.
