From 2005 to 2015 Tim served as General Sales Manager and ultimately as General Manager of Salem's Louisville radio stations.

Tim stated, "Leaving Salem in 2015 to plant a much-needed church and ministry in Louisville's southwest area, my old neighborhood with my wife Jennifer, was one of the toughest decisions we had ever made. Returning to Salem and joining the Nashville team as General Sales Manager was one of the easiest. Salem Nashville is in an incredibly vibrant market with a great reputation. It's great to be a part of the Salem Family again. It feels like a homecoming."

Salem Nashville General Manager Kevin Anderson said, "I have known and respected Tim for years and we have remained in touch. When he reached out to say he was considering a move, I became really excited. I know Tim's drive and I know his heart. He is a perfect fit for us in Nashville. We welcome this idea and revenue generator with open arms."
