empowered to use their best strengths every day," said Michael D. Brown, president and CEO of Travel + Leisure Co. "Engaging our global team in meaningful work benefits everyone and is at the heart of our ability to deliver outstanding vacation experiences and travel inspiration to millions of owners, members and subscribers every year."

"Travel + Leisure Co. is pleased to once again be recognized by Gallup for our commitment to creating a culture where associates feel heard, valued and

The Gallup Exceptional Workplace Award (GEWA) recognizes the most engaged workplace cultures in the world. Winning organizations put their employees' engagement at the center of their business strategies, integrating engagement at every stage of the employee life cycle. Gallup Exceptional Workplace Award winners are unique in their ability to create thriving cultures and achieve their business outcomes through innovative engagement, wellbeing and communication strategies, and in doing so, their ratio of engaged employees to actively disengaged employees is 11 times higher than the international average.

"The Most Trustworthy Companies in America title reinforces Travel + Leisure's reputation as a company that values its customers, associates and investors, and is displaying strong performance on a national level," added Brown.

The Most Trustworthy Companies in America 2024 ranking is based on a holistic approach to evaluating three public pillars of trust: consumer trust, investor trust and employee trust. Based on an independent survey of about 25,000 U.S. residents who rated companies they know in terms of all three touch points of trust, a total of 97,000 evaluations of companies were submitted. All companies headquartered in the U.S. with a revenue of over $500 million were considered in the study, which was conducted by Statista.
