Digital Turbine Named Top Provider for Bouygues Telecom Mobile App Campaigns

Austin, TX – June 22, 2016 – Digital Turbine, Inc. \(Nasdaq: APPS\), a global mobile platform company, today announced an agreement with Bouygues Telecom, a leading French operator with more than 12 million mobile subscribers. Under the terms of the agreement, Digital Turbine will provide and manage Bouygues Telecom mobile app and home screen campaigns. The partnership began in June.

“Mobile operators can more effectively deliver a relevant suite of app campaigns to their end customers by leveraging our advertising network and exclusive partnerships with top mobile ad agencies,” said Bill Stone, CEO of Digital Turbine. “Saving precious time and resources for carriers, our proprietary app recommendation engine, AppSource, employs data science to optimize and track mobile advertising campaigns. We are excited to partner with Bouygues Telecom to help deliver impactful campaigns that promote a higher level of user engagement.”

As the leading independent mobile user acquisition network, Digital Turbine has driven more than 150 million app installs globally. Digital Turbine’s mobile software platform consists of a suite of APIs that enables mobile publishers and OEMs to tap into their proprietary campaign server for monetization opportunities. Digital Turbine Media provides unique and exclusive ad inventory through its Advertising Partnership Program which connects leading advertising agencies with premier homescreen access to some of the largest mobile operator networks around the world.
