III. STRUCTURE AND PROCESSES

The Board may, in accordance with the Company’s bylaws, remove members of the Compensation Committee upon recommendation of the Nominating and Governance Committee. The Compensation Committee’s chairperson shall be designated by the full Board or, if it does not do so, the Compensation Committee members shall elect a Compensation Committee chairperson by vote of a majority of the persons then serving as members of the Compensation Committee.
2. Meetings. The Compensation Committee shall meet as often as may be deemed necessary or appropriate in its judgment, but not less frequently than four times each year, and at such times and places as the Compensation Committee shall determine. At a minimum of one such meeting annually, the Compensation Committee will review the Company's equity-based plans, performance goals and incentive awards, and the overall coverage and composition of the compensation package for executive officers. The Compensation Committee may request any officer or employee of the Company to attend a meeting of the Compensation Committee or to meet with any members of, or advisors to, the Compensation Committee.

3. Information for Meetings. As soon as practicable prior to each Compensation Committee meeting, each member of the Compensation Committee will receive information regarding compensation, equity award grants, bonuses, bonus objectives and bonus scoring for the Company, as applicable, relevant to the subject matter of such meeting.
4. Rules and Guidelines. The Compensation Committee chairperson or a majority of the Compensation Committee members may call meetings of the Compensation Committee to be held in person, telephonically or by other form of electronic communication over which members can hear one another. A majority of the authorized number of Compensation Committee members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of Compensation Committee business, and the vote of a majority of the Compensation Committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Compensation Committee, unless in either case a greater number is required by this charter ("Charter"), the bylaws or the applicable listing standards. The Compensation Committee may amend the foregoing meeting guidelines and/or adopt other rules and guidelines for its meetings and other activities.
5. Minutes. The Compensation Committee shall keep written minutes of its meetings and deliver copies of the minutes to the corporate secretary for inclusion in the corporate records. The Company's General Counsel or his or her designee shall attend all Compensation Committee meetings at which equity grants are made and shall keep minutes of such meetings. The minutes of such meetings will be approved by the Compensation Committee as promptly as practicable and then will be communicated to the appropriate Company stakeholders (such as stock plan administration).
6. Advisors. The Compensation Committee may, in its discretion, retain the services of a compensation consultant to advise and assist the Compensation Committee in the performance of its functions. The Compensation Committee also may, in its discretion, retain the services of legal counsel and other advisors of its choosing to assist the Compensation Committee in the performance of its functions. The Compensation Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any compensation consultant, legal counsel and other advisor retained by the Compensation Committee. The Company shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Compensation Committee, to compensate consultants, legal counsel or other advisors retained by the Compensation Committee pursuant to this Charter. Before selecting, or receiving advice from, any such compensation consultant, legal counsel or other advisor (other than in-house legal counsel), the Compensation Committee must consider the independence of such advisor by taking into consideration factors specified by the rules and regulations of the NASDAQ Stock Market (including NASDAQ Listing Rule 5605(d)(3)(D)) and any other factors that the Compensation Committee may deem relevant in its discretion.

7. Subcommittees. V. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The Compensation Committee shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

1. General Duties and Responsibilities.
 - a. The Compensation Committee shall have the authority to determine the form, timing and amount of compensation for the Company's executive officers necessary or appropriate to achieve the Compensation Committee's strategic objectives, compensation, equity awards, deferred compensation opportunities and post-employment compensation arrangements.
 - b. Equity Grants
 - i. The Compensation Committee shall have the authority to (A) administer all option, purchase and other award plans involving the Company's securities, (B) review and act upon management's recommendations as to the issuance and terms of options, restricted stock units and other equity awards to be granted under those plans, (C) to make changes to existing equity-based plans and equity-based plans assumed or to be assumed in connection with mergers or acquisitions that are not material (and report any changes made to the Board), and (D) make recommendations to the Board with respect to material changes to existing equity-based plans and equity-based plans assumed or to be assumed in connection with mergers or acquisitions, and the adoption of new equity-based plans.

based plans) and shall do so in a manner which the Compensation Committee believes to be in compliance with the terms of the applicable equity-based plan and with all applicable federal, state, local and foreign laws and tax requirements.

- iii. Grants of stock options and stock appreciation rights shall not be granted by written consent in lieu of a meeting. The exercise price of stock options and the reference price for stock appreciations rights shall be the closing sale price of the Company's common stock on the NASDAQ Stock Market (or such other principal market or exchange on which the Company's stock is listed) on the date of grant.
 - iv. The Compensation Committee shall submit any proposed equity grants for the Company's Chief Executive Officer to the Board (for approval by the independent members of the Board).
 - v. The Compensation Committee shall direct that actions be taken to promptly (A) notify recipients of their equity grants (with the goal of notifying such recipients within four weeks of the date of grant) and (B) document all equity grants in the appropriate Company records (with the goal of entering all such equity grants in the Company's equity database within ten working days of the date of grant).
- c. The Compensation Committee shall review and approve (other than with respect to the Chief Executive Officer, for whom the Compensation Committee shall prepare a recommendation for approval by the independent members of the Board) all employment agreements proposed to be entered into between the Company and any executive officer and any proposed amendments or renewals of such agreements, and no such agreement or amendment may be implemented without the Compensation Committee's approval.
 - d. The Compensation Committee shall review and approve (other than with respect to the Chief Executive Officer, for whom the Compensation Committee shall prepare a recommendation for approval by the independent members of the Board) all separation packages, severance benefits and change in control benefits proposed for executive officers, including salary and bonus continuation payments, vesting acceleration of equity awards and extended post-employment exercise periods for outstanding awards, COBRA coverage at Company expense and outplacement services, and no such benefits shall be paid or provided without the Compensation Committee's approval.
 - e. The Compensation Committee shall have the authority to (A) administer the Company's 401(k) plan and Executive Deferred Savings Plan (i.e., serve as the "Administrator" for purposes of the Company's 401(k) plan and as the "Committee" for purposes of the Executive Deferred Savings Plan), (B) review and act upon management's recommendations as to the changes to the administrative practices under those plans, (C) as the "Committee" for purposes of the Executive Deferred Savings Plan, approve amendments to the Executive Deferred Savings Plan and (D) make recommendations to the Board with respect to amendments to the 401(k) Plan.

2. Specific Duties and Responsibilities.

- a. The Compensation Committee shall review corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, evaluate or receive an evaluation of the performance of the Chief Executive Officer in light of those goals and objectives, and prepare (at least annually) a recommendation of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation levels (including any equity grants) based on this evaluation, which recommendation shall be submitted to the independent members of the Board for approval. In preparing the recommended long-term incentive component of the Chief Executive Officer's compensation, the Compensation Committee will consider, among other factors, the Company's performance and relative stockholder return, the value of similar incentive awards to chief executive officers at comparable companies, and the awards given to the Company's Chief Executive Officer in the past. The Company's Chief Executive Officer shall not be present during voting or deliberations by the Compensation Committee on his or her compensation.
- b. With respect to the executive officers of the Company other than the Chief Executive Officer, the Compensation Committee shall (i) receive a performance review of such other executive officers, (ii) taking into account those evaluations, review and approve compensation of such other executive officers as recommended by the Chief Executive Officer, and (iii) review and approve any awards or grants to such other executive officers with respect to any executive incentive compensation plans and equity-based plans.
- c. The Compensation Committee shall evaluate the compensation of the Chairman of the Board and prepare a recommendation of the Chairman of the Board's compensation (including any equity grants) based on this evaluation, which recommendation shall be submitted to the Board for approval. The Chairman of the Board shall abstain from any voting or deliberations by the Board regarding his or her compensation.
- d. The Compensation Committee shall evaluate and approve the compensation terms for directors (other than the Chairman of the Board, which the Compensation Committee shall recommend to the Board for approval). The Compensation Committee shall also approve equity awards (including without limitation option grants and restricted stock units) to directors. All cash compensation to directors (including the Chairman of the Board) shall be paid each quarter, after the quarterly Board meeting. The Compensation Committee shall periodically, at such frequency as the Compensation Committee shall deem appropriate in its discretion, request that its independent compensation consultant prepare and provide a report for the Compensation Committee regarding the status of the Board's compensation in relation to other like companies.
- e. In the event of a significant restatement of financial results resulting from fraud, misconduct, material non-compliance or material errors, the Compensation Committee may (in its sole discretion, but acting in good faith and in compliance with applicable laws) direct that the Company recover all or a portion of performance-based compensation, including bonuses and long-term incentive awards, made to executive officers during the restatement period. The amount to be recovered from an executive officer hereunder shall be the amount by which the performance-based compensation exceeded the amount that would have been payable to such executive officer had the financial statements been initially filed as restated, or any greater or lesser amount (including, but not limited to, the entire award) that the Compensation Committee shall determine. The Compensation Committee may determine to recover different amounts from different executive officers on such basis it shall deem appropriate. The Compensation Committee shall determine whether the Company shall effect any such recovery: (i) by seeking repayment from the applicable executive officer, (ii) by reducing (subject to applicable law and the terms and conditions of the applicable plan, program or arrangement) the amount that would otherwise be payable to the executive officer under any compensatory plan, program or arrangement maintained by the Company, (iii) by withholding (subject to applicable law and the terms and conditions of the applicable plan, program or arrangement) payment of future increases in compensation (including the payment of any discretionary bonus amount) or grants of compensatory awards that would otherwise have been made in accordance with the Company's otherwise applicable compensation practices, or (iv) by any combination of the foregoing or otherwise.

3. Other Duties and Responsibilities.

The Compensation Committee shall review the compensation discussion and analysis each year and submit its recommended action to the Board regarding the inclusion of the compensation discussion and analysis in the proxy statement and/or Form 10-K.

- f. The Compensation Committee shall review from time to time the Company's various employee benefit plans and shall have the authority to be the administrator of such plans.

The Compensation Committee shall have reasonable access to the Company's personnel and documents as necessary to carry out its responsibilities. The Compensation Committee may alter, supplement or diverge from the duties and responsibilities listed above as appropriate under the circumstances, to the extent permitted by the delegations to it, applicable law or legal commitments, or listing standards. The Compensation Committee is authorized to undertake any other responsibilities as may from time to time be assigned to it by the Board and to take all actions and establish appropriate processes and policies reasonably necessary to carry out its functions and duties under this Charter.
