Capital City Bank Group Foundation Contributes Nearly $215,000 to Support Local Nonprofits

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., November 4, 2026 – In the 2026 grant cycle, the Capital City Bank Group (CCBG) Foundation reinvested $214,000 into nearly 60 local charitable organizations across Florida, Georgia and Alabama. The donations provided by the CCBG Foundation help nonprofits carry on the mission of the Foundation to enhance the quality of life for countless local citizens in the areas where we do business.

“Strong communities are built when people and organizations come together to make a difference,” said Bill Smith, Capital City Bank Group chairman and CEO. “We are proud to support local nonprofits through our Capital City Bank Group Foundation and help advance their work to improve lives and strengthen our communities.”

Donations were awarded to recipients in Florida, Georgia and Alabama through dedicated grants to organizations such as:

- Bradford County Education Foundation
- Children's Home Society of Florida
- Friends of Children of North Central Florida
- Grady County Help Agency
- Gwinnett-Walton Habitat for Humanity
- Men of Excellence, Inc.
- Reach Out and Read
- Girls on the Run
- The Magnolia School
- Hometown Outreach
- Lee Conlee House Domestic Violence Center
- St. Johns County Council on Aging
- The Pilot Club of St. Augustine
- Interfaith Food Closet
- Kiwanis Club of Valley

The CCBG Foundation – a nonprofit organization created in 1983 by Capital City Bank Group, Inc. – is designed to build strong communities by enhancing the quality of life in communities where Capital City does business. The Foundation provides grants to nonprofits, charitable organizations and institutions exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The mission of the CCBG Foundation is to invest in initiatives that benefit local communities. Most of the funds are distributed to specific areas of focus, including: arts/culture, children/youth services, economic/community development, education, health/sciences and human services.To learn more about the Capital City Bank Group Foundation, visit www.ccbgfoundation.org.
