Bristow Group Appoints Shefali Shah to its Board of Directors

HOUSTON, December 11, 2023 — Bristow Group Inc. (NYSE: VTOL) announced today that Shefali Shah has been appointed to its Board of Directors. The appointment to the new director position is effective immediately.

Shah currently serves as Executive Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer, and General Counsel for Avaya Holdings Corp (Avaya), which provides customer experience solutions to many of the world's largest brands, where she is responsible for strategic initiatives.

Prior to joining Avaya, Shah worked at Era Group Inc. (now Bristow Group Inc.), where she served as Senior Vice President, General Counsel, and Corporate Secretary. She helped facilitate Era's transition to an independent public company and managed its legal, human resources, and corporate communications functions.

"Shefali's history in our industry, including her pivotal role at Era, equips her with a deep understanding of our business and our vision as the global leader in innovative and sustainable vertical flight solutions. Her strategic vision and leadership acumen will be greatly valued as we navigate Bristow's path towards further growth and innovation," said Director, President, and Chief Executive Officer Chris Bradshaw.

"Shefali's track record of success across various senior roles speaks volumes regarding her exceptional capabilities, and we are pleased to welcome her to our Board of Directors," said Mark Mickelson, Chairman. "Shefali's insights, drawn from her extensive experience in both the legal and corporate spheres, will undoubtedly enrich our strategic deliberations and help the Board as we guide Bristow forward."

Shah has also held several senior management roles, including Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary with Comverse Technology, Inc., which developed and marketed telecommunications software. She began her legal career as a corporate associate for both Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP and Hutchins, Wheeler & Dittmar, P.C.

She holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Boston University, and a Juris Doctor from Duke University Law School.
