Anixa Biosciences Announces VA North Texas Health Care System to Join Cchek™ Prostate Cancer Study

SAN JOSE, Calif., July 29, 2019 /PRNewswire/ --Anixa Biosciences, Inc. (NASDAQ: ANIX), a biotechnology company focused on harnessing the body's immune system to fight cancer, today announced that the VA North Texas Health Care System and its non-profit affiliate, the Dallas VA Research Corporation, have joined Anixa's ongoing prostate cancer Cchek™ study. Study enrollment will be led by Dr. Manoj Reddy, Radiation Oncologist, and Dr. Jeffrey Gahan, Chief of Robotic Surgery.

"We are pleased to see the continued expansion in Cchek™ collaboration partners to now include the VA North Texas Health Care System. We look forward to working with Dr. Reddy and Dr. Gahan as we further the development of our artificial intelligence based prostate cancer diagnostic test," stated Dr. Amit Kumar, CEO of Anixa.

About Anixa Biosciences, Inc.

Anixa is a publicly-traded biotechnology company focused on harnessing the body's immune system in the fight against cancer. Anixa's therapeutics portfolio includes a cancer immunotherapy program, which uses chimeric endocrine receptor t-cell (CER-T) technology, a novel type of CAR-T, and a cancer vaccine technology focused specifically on triple negative breast cancer (TNBC), the most lethal form of the disease. Anixa's diagnostics portfolio includes the Cchek™ liquid biopsy technology, a series of inexpensive non-invasive blood tests for early detection of solid tumors based on the body's immune response to the presence of a malignancy. Anixa continually examines emerging technologies in complementary fields for further development and commercialization. Additional information is available at www.anixa.com.
