AMD Announces Pricing of Private Offering of $600 Million of Senior Notes

SUNNYVALE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 02/20/14 -- AMD (NYSE: AMD) today announced that it has agreed to sell $600 million aggregate principal amount of its 6.75% Senior Notes due 2019 in a private offering. AMD intends to close the transaction on or around February 26, 2014.

AMD estimates that the net proceeds from the issuance and sale of the senior notes will be approximately $590 million after deducting the initial purchasers' discounts and estimated offering expenses. AMD intends to use the net proceeds to repurchase up to $425 million aggregate principal amount of its outstanding 6.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2015 through a tender offer which was launched on February 20, 2014. Remaining net proceeds will be used to repurchase up to a maximum of $200 million aggregate principal amount of its outstanding 8.125% Senior Notes due 2017 through a tender offer which was also launched on February 20, 2014. AMD will use any net proceeds not used in the tender offers to redeem, repurchase or otherwise retire other outstanding debt.

The new senior notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or applicable state securities laws, and will be offered only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A and in offshore transactions pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act. Unless so registered, the new senior notes may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy these securities, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
