AMD Announces Private Offering of $500 Million of Senior Notes

SUNNYVALE, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 02/20/14 -- Advanced Micro Devices, Inc. (NYSE: AMD) today announced that it intends to commence a private offering, subject to market and other conditions, of $500 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2019. AMD intends to use the net proceeds received in the offering to repurchase up to $425 million aggregate principal amount of its outstanding 6.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2015 through a tender offer which was launched on February 20, 2014. AMD intends to use remaining net proceeds to repurchase up to a maximum of $200 million aggregate principal amount of AMD's outstanding 8.125% Senior Notes due 2017 through a tender offer which was also launched on February 20, 2014. To the extent AMD will have net proceeds after the completion of the tender offers, it will use such net proceeds to redeem, repurchase or otherwise retire other outstanding debt.

The new senior notes have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or applicable state securities laws, and will be offered only to qualified institutional buyers in reliance on Rule 144A and in offshore transactions pursuant to Regulation S under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Unless so registered, the new senior notes may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws.

This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy these securities, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such state.
