TILT Announces Filing Extension of Annual and Q1 2020 Interim Financial Results

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 28, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- TILT Holdings Inc. ("TILT" or the "Company") (CSE: TILT) (OTCQB: TLLTF), a technology and solutions cannabis platform comprised of assets to support brands worldwide, is providing an update regarding its financial statements and accompanying management's discussion and analysis for the financial year ended December 31, 2019 and the quarter ended March 31, 2020.

As a result of the impact caused by COVID-19, the Company will rely on exemptive relief provided by British Columbia Instrument 51-515 Temporary Exemption from Certain Corporate Finance Requirements, which provides up to 45 days for issuers to complete filings required to be made on or prior to June 1, 2020. The Company continues to work in close coordination with its new auditors on the filings, which the Company will submit during the 45 day exemption period. As previously announced, TILT appointed a new audit firm in December 2019.

In the interim, TILT's management and other insiders are subject to a trading black-out policy reflecting the principles in section 9 of National Policy 11-207 – Failure to File Cease Trade Orders and Revocations in Multiple Jurisdictions such that they are in a black-out period until the end of the second trading day after the annual filings and Q1 interim filings have been disclosed by way of a news release.

TILT also confirms there have been no material business developments since the date the Company's last interim financial reports were filed beyond what has been previously publicly disclosed.

TILT will announce a revised date for the release of its annual filings and related conference call to review year end 2019 results as soon as practicable.
