

Avalon GloboCare Engages Boustead Securities as Underwriter and Financial Advisor

Plans to Uplist to a Senior National Exchange

FREEHOLD, NJ -- (Marketwired) -- 11/02/17 -- Avalon GloboCare Corp. (OTCQB: AVCO), a leading global developer of cell-based technologies, announced today that it has retained Boustead Securities, LLC ("Boustead") as its Underwriter and Financial Advisor and plans to uplist from the OTCQB to a senior national exchange.

Dr. David Jin, President and CEO of Avalon GloboCare, commented, "We are pleased to announce the launch of our uplisting efforts as we continue to execute on our growth strategy. We believe that uplisting to a senior national exchange will provide us the right global visibility and access to significant partners, while enhancing shareholder value. Boustead has an impressive track record and extensive relationships with investors in both the U.S. and Asia and we look forward to working with Boustead's highly experienced and reputable executive team."

Boustead Securities' Dan McClory, Managing Director and Head of Equity Capital Markets, stated, "We support Avalon's mission to accelerate and develop innovative and transformative cell-based technologies. We have been impressed by Avalon's management team and deep relationships in the global healthcare market. We look forward to helping Avalon in its uplisting process to a national exchange, and meeting Avalon's objectives of increasing visibility within the capital markets, and bringing value to shareholders."
