C-Bond Systems Engages Black Diamond Strategies to Expand Use of C-Bond BRS in Federal Buildings, Schools, Embassies, National Media Networks and More

C-Bond BRS is gaining increasing visibility as evidenced by recent installations at major media networks. With demand growing, the Company expects working with these public affairs firms will help increase penetration and revenue for C-Bond BRS

HOUSTON, Oct. 02, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- C-Bond Systems (the “Company” or “C-Bond”) (OTC: CBNT), a nanotechnology company that improves and strengthens glass, announced today that it has engaged Black Diamond Strategies to expand the awareness and use of C-Bond BRS, C-Bond’s ballistic-resistant film system, in federal buildings, schools, embassies, national media networks, and other secure facilities throughout the U.S.

The Company has posted on its website a video of C-Bond BRS preventing bullets from a 9 mm handgun from penetrating glass, as well as a video of C-Bond BRS preventing bullets from an AK-47 rifle from penetrating glass.

C-Bond BRS is a ballistic-resistant film system that increases the structural integrity of glass through nanotechnology. C-Bond BRS consists of the patented C-Bond glass strengthening technology, which increases glass strength and flexibility by chemically bonding to the defects randomly distributed on the glass surface to help prevent breakage, and a private-label security film. C-Bond BRS is validated to provide NIJ Level I, Level IIA, Level II, and UL 752 ballistic-resistant protection by an independent third-party laboratory.

Black Diamond Strategies, led by Hon. Connie Mack, Doug Davenport, and Hans Klinger, provides government affairs and strategic counsel to corporations to navigate the complicated policy and regulatory environment both nationally and internationally. The partners of Black Diamond Strategies have over 80 years collectively navigating the complex public affairs and political landscape, and their team includes former members of Congress, senior presidential campaign advisors, and senior capitol hill staffers.

The Company’s efforts to increase awareness of C-Bond BRS are also being supported by Kim Blanchard, a sales and client relationship executive supporting companies moving into their next phase of growth in partnership with Black Diamond Strategies. Blanchard runs Idea to Impact, which specializes in providing market assessment positioning, business development expertise and creating successful strategic road maps to deliver services and products within the government services industry. She helps companies obtain government contracts within Federal Civilian agencies such as DHS, HHS and VA as well as DOD.

“Working with the experienced and well-connected teams at Black Diamond and Ms. Blanchard has already yielded positive outcomes for C-Bond,” said Scott R. Silverman, Chairman and CEO of C-Bond. “Together our teams look to advance the use of C-Bond BRS as an added safety measure in high-security facilities throughout the U.S.”
