Oceania Cruises® Spotlights Longer Voyages as the Ultimate Way to Explore the World

Luxury Cruise Line Showcases Immersive Journeys that Combine Deeper Discovery, Exceptional Value and Effortless Travel Across Oceans and Continents

MIAMI, Aug. 13, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- As luxury travelers increasingly seek more meaningful ways to see the world, Oceania Cruises® is shining a spotlight on its portfolio of longer voyages, offering guests the opportunity to explore the globe's most captivating destinations with greater depth, comfort and ease.

From Grand Voyages to epic 180-day Around the World journeys, Oceania Cruises, the world's leading destination- and culinary-focused luxury cruise line, offers travelers the opportunity to experience multiple countries, cultures and landscapes in one seamless journey. With time to take in more of the world, guests experience the richness of slow travel, creating memories that last long after they return home.

Aboard Oceania Cruises' fleet of intimate, luxurious ships, guests can visit more than 600 destinations worldwide, from iconic cultural capitals and UNESCO-listed landmarks to hidden coastal gems. Longer itineraries allow travelers to explore at a more relaxed pace, whether discovering ancient temples in Asia, historic Mediterranean cities or South America's dramatic coastlines.

"For today's luxury traveler, discovering somewhere new is about more than moving from one place to another," said Jason Montague, Chief Luxury Officer of Oceania Cruises. "Longer voyages give guests the time to experience destinations differently. They can linger a little longer, venture farther and appreciate the character of each place without feeling rushed. Combined with enriching experiences on board and carefully curated small-group excursions ashore, it is a wonderfully rewarding way to see the world. Every journey reflects our belief that the greatest luxury is having the time to truly enjoy it."

Longer cruises combine the excitement of exploration with exceptional value and effortless travel. Guests can journey between continents and across oceans without repeated flights, hotel changes or complex logistics, enjoying a luxurious home at sea while traveling seamlessly from one destination to the next.

The line's adults-only environment complements the unhurried rhythm of longer travel. Leisurely days at sea and engaging onboard enrichment programs allow guests to settle into the journey while enjoying the exceptional service and culinary excellence that define every Oceania Cruises voyage.

Further underscoring the line's commitment to immersive exploration, Oceania Aurelia™, The Ultimate Explorer, will debut in late 2027. Designed for extended journeys, the ship will sail thoughtfully curated itineraries including Oceania Cruises' highly anticipated 2028 and 2029 Around the World voyages.

With extraordinary space, refined design and highly personalized service, the ship is ideally suited for travelers seeking the luxury and convenience of longer voyages.
