The order of 40 units is in addition to another recent follow-on order for 38 units with this same customer, as previously announced on August 2, 2023.

"Based on our strong performance, we continue to expand our relationship with this important client," commented David Cross, Vice President of Business Development for Safe & Green Holdings.

"We believe these successive follow-on orders are further validation of the quality of our work and strong value proposition. Importantly, this customer continues to work with us based on our ability to deliver units quickly, sustainably and cost effectively."

"Our multi-state certifications, which allow our units to be relocated, if necessary, is an important competitive advantage for SG Echo," further noted Brian Aspell, Vice President of Operations for Safe & Green Holdings. "This multi-state functionality is expected to increase sales opportunities and we could not be more excited about the outlook for the business."
