Wyndham Extra Holidays Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month with Fall Travel Deals Across the U.S.

To encourage travelers to join in Hispanic Heritage Month festivities, from Sept. 15 through Oct. 15, Wyndham Extra Holidays is providing budget-friendly stays in cities across the U.S.

ORLANDO, Fla., Sept. 5, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Wyndham® Extra Holidays, part of Wyndham Destinations, the world's largest vacation ownership company, is celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month with deals in top U.S. cities hosting exciting events.

Beginning September 5, resorts in destinations like Orlando, Florida, Scottsdale, Arizona, Park City, Utah and more, will offer discounts ranging from 15% to 30% off for travelers looking to kick-off fall with a vacation to celebrate the heritage and pride of Hispanic culture.

"At Wyndham Extra Holidays we have 180 resorts in over 80 cities and we love to celebrate each and every destination's identity and heritage," said Heena Patel, Director, Extra Holidays. "We're here to help families make a lifetime of memories by traveling and exploring cities rich with culture, all while spending quality time in a comfortable accommodation that won't break the bank."

Looking ahead, these are some of the exciting celebrations where families can share these memorable experiences together.

- Rio Grande, Puerto Rico - Rio Grande will hold its first-ever artisan fair and music festival in celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month at one of Wyndham Destinations very own resorts, Margaritaville Vacation Club® Wyndham Rio Mar. For the first time ever, the resort will dedicate September 28th to National Hispanic Heritage Month with offerings such as local artisans, musicians, a cigar roller, a coffee vendor and a historical rum distributor. In addition, activities such as art classes with Vicente Huertas and salsa and merengue dancing will take place on the grounds.
