Liberty Interactive and GCI Liberty Announce Completion of Auto Conversion, Reattribution and Expected Closing of Transactions

ENGLEWOOD, Colo. & ANCHORAGE, Alaska--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Liberty Interactive Corporation ("LIC") (Nasdaq: QVCA, QVCB, LVNTA, LVNTB) and GCI Liberty, Inc. ("GCI Liberty") (Nasdaq: GNCMA / GLIBA, GLIBP) today announced that GCI Liberty has effected the automatic conversion (the "auto conversion"), as of 4:21 p.m., New York City time, today, of each share of its GCI Liberty Class A-1 and Class B-1 common stock into (i) 0.63 of a share of GCI Liberty Class A common stock and (ii) 0.2 of a share of GCI Liberty Series A Cumulative Redeemable Preferred Stock (the "preferred stock").

LIC has also completed the reattribution of certain assets and liabilities attributed to its Ventures Group to the QVC Group. The reattributed assets and liabilities consisted of cash, LIC's interests in ILG and FTD, certain green energy investments, exchangeable debentures of Liberty Interactive LLC and certain tax benefits. The final valuations of assets and liabilities to be reattributed will be provided after closing. Prior to market open tomorrow, LIC will contribute to GCI Liberty, in exchange for shares of GCI Liberty Class A and Class B common stock, the following assets and liabilities currently attributed to the Ventures Group: LIC's entire equity interests in Liberty Broadband Corporation, Charter Communications, Lending Tree and Evite and certain other assets and liabilities attributed to its Ventures Group following the reattribution. LIC expects to complete the redemption of its Series A and Series B Liberty Ventures common stock in exchange for shares of GCI Liberty stock (the "split-off") at 4:01 p.m., New York City time, tomorrow.

Following the auto conversion, GCI Liberty has delisted its Class A-1 common stock, and as a result, such securities will no longer trade on the Nasdaq Global Select Market as of market open tomorrow, March 9. In addition, GCI Liberty's Class B-1 common stock will no longer be quoted on the OTC Markets. GCI Liberty's Class A common stock and preferred stock are expected to commence trading in the regular way under the symbols "GLIBA" and "GLIBP," respectively, on Monday, March 12. GCI Liberty intends to cause its Class B common stock to be quoted on the OTC Markets as soon as is practical following the closing date. However, LIC and GCI Liberty can give no assurances as to the timing of the quotation or the symbol under which GCI Liberty's Class B common stock will be quoted.

In addition, LIC intends to delist its Series A and Series B Liberty Ventures common stock following the split-off and, as a result, such securities will cease to be traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market following market close tomorrow, March 9.

As previously announced, beginning on Monday, March 12, LIC's Series A and Series B QVC Group common stock will no longer trade under the symbols "QVCA" and "QVCB," respectively, and will begin trading under the symbols "QRTEA" and "QRTEB," respectively, in connection with the rebranding of LIC and its QVC Group as Qurate Retail Group.
