High Roller Technologies Diamond Sponsor of the NEXTPredict 2026 Conference

Company's new Chief Business Officer Flip Pidot will be one of the hosts of a key panel at NEXTPredict 2026

Prediction markets summit takes place October 22–23 at Hudson Yards in New York City

LAS VEGAS, Nevada, Oct. 19, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- High Roller Technologies, Inc. ("High Roller" or the "Company") (NYSE: ROLR), an online gaming and prediction markets company, today announced that Chief Business Officer Flip Pidot will participate at NEXTPredict 2026, taking place October 22–23, 2026, at Hudson Yards in New York City. The Company's prediction markets brand, ROLR™, is a Diamond level sponsor of the NEXTPredict 2026 conference.

Flip Pidot joins a panel focusing on one question: predict which party will hold the Senate after the midterms? This isn't political commentary - it's a high-conviction debate anchored on a single prediction-market contract. Each voice on stage takes a definitive position on the market and defends it with the data, the odds and the thesis behind the call. Recorded live as an episode of the Betting the Future podcast with Dalton Skach, it puts the smart money on the record, and on the line, before the results come in.
