Rand Capital Provides Key Dates Related to $1.62 per Share Special Dividend

BUFFALO, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Rand Capital Corporation (Nasdaq: RAND) ("Rand" or "Rand Capital" or the "Company"), a business development company, today announced the key dates related to the previously announced special dividend of $23.7 million, or approximately $1.62 per share, declared on March 3, 2020, in connection with its plans to elect to become a regulated investment company ("RIC") for U.S. federal tax purposes beginning with tax year 2020.

Record Date:	April 2, 2020
Election Period:	April 3, 2020 to 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on April 24, 2020
Payment Date:	May 11, 2020
Ex-Dividend Date:	May 12, 2020

The details and U.S. federal tax consequences of the special dividend will be described in the election form and accompanying materials that will be mailed to shareholders in connection with the special dividend promptly following the Record Date. Shareholders who do not return a timely and properly completed election form before the Election Deadline will be deemed to have made an election to receive the special dividend as determined by the pro rata calculations based on other shareholders' elections and the limitation of 20% cash.

Shareholders who hold their shares through a bank, broker or nominee, or in "street name" will not receive an election form directly from Rand and should receive information regarding the election process from their bank, broker or nominee. Street name holders should contact their bank, broker or nominee for additional information.

The total number of shares of common stock to be distributed to shareholders receiving all or a portion of the special dividend in shares of Rand's common stock on the Payment Date will be determined based upon the volume-weighted average price of the common stock during the three consecutive trading days immediately following the Election Deadline.

Safe Harbor Statement

This press release contains "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements concern future circumstances and results and other statements that are not historical facts and are sometimes identified by the words "may," "will," "should," "potential," "intend," "expect," "endeavor," "seek," "anticipate," "estimate," "overestimate," "underestimate," "believe," "could," "project," "predict," "continue," "target" or other similar words or expressions. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove to be incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those indicated or anticipated by such forward-looking statements. The inclusion of such statements should not be regarded as a representation that such plans, estimates or expectations will be achieved. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from such plans, estimates or expectations include, among others, (1) the risk that Rand Capital may be unable to fulfill the conditions required in order to elect to be treated as a RIC for U.S. federal tax purposes or, once the election has been made, to maintain its status as a RIC for U.S. federal tax purposes; (2) the risk that Rand Capital is unable to declare and pay future quarterly cash dividends to shareholders; (3) evolving legal, regulatory and tax regimes; (4) changes in general economic and/or industry specific conditions; and (5) other risk factors as detailed from time to time in Rand Capital's reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"), including Rand Capital's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019, later filed quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, the definitive proxy statement and other documents filed with the SEC. Consequently, such forward-looking statements should be regarded as Rand Capital's current plans, estimates and beliefs. Except as required by applicable law, Rand Capital assumes no obligation to update the forward-looking information contained in this release.
