SEI Extends Outsourcing Relationship With Causeway Funds

Global Experience, Quality Service Key as Firm Continues International Fund Expansion

OAKS, Pa., Jan. 19 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- SEI (Nasdaq: SEIC) today announced that it has extended its relationship with Causeway Capital Management Trust to provide outsourcing services for the firm's expanding family of international funds. The relationship dates back to the fund family's inception in 2001, demonstrating SEI's ability to scale its offering to meet changing client needs throughout every stage of growth.

SEI's outsourcing solution for Causeway includes full service mutual fund administration, accounting, shareholder services and distribution. The company's experience and capabilities were pointed to as critical assets while Causeway continues to expand its presence. SEI's superior service, ability to support a growing product mix, and strong team continuity over the course of the relationship were considered key factors in the renewal process.

"SEI has been our partner from the beginning and they have provided us the tools and the support to grow at every step along the way," said Gracie Fermelia, Chief Operating Officer of Causeway Capital Management LLC. "SEI supplies high-quality work and excellent client service and we know we can count on SEI for its exceptional knowledge and capabilities. We look forward to years of continued growth with SEI as our strategic partner."

"Having worked with Causeway since the inception of its funds, this is a very special relationship," said John Alshefski, Senior Vice President, SEI's Investment Manager Services division. "SEI has focused on building a flexible and scalable operational environment so Causeway can focus on serving its shareholders and growing its funds -- and the firm has done that very well. We are proud of our relationship with Causeway, we are proud of the growth the firm has achieved, and we are pleased to provide the support Causeway needs to continue its success."
