More Than Twenty Financial Institutions Pick Corillian Online from Fiserv to Deliver a Consistently Excellent Digital Banking Experience

BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Fiserv, Inc. (NASDAQ: FISV), a leading global provider of financial services technology solutions, today announced that more than 20 banks and credit unions, ranging from the \$18.7 billion First Hawaiian Bank to community banks and credit unions, chose Corillian Online[®] ASP during the past six months.

Corillian Online will serve as the foundation for each financial institution's digital banking experience, facilitating the delivery of a consistent experience across multiple channels. Integration with core account processing platforms, along with a sophisticated user interface that more than meets consumer expectations, were cited as reasons for selecting Corillian Online. Multiple financial institutions also noted the Fiserv vision for the future of the product as a reason for their decision.

"In order to compete in an increasingly digital world, financial institutions need a robust, user-friendly online banking service that is designed for the way people live and work today," said Kevin Schultz, president, Digital Banking, Fiserv. "Fiserv is delivering digital banking services that enable our clients to meet consumers' evolving expectations."

Corillian Online ASP offers a simplified, tablet-inspired user interface that surfaces the most commonly used online banking and payments functionality together on a single page. It features simple navigation and large touchable objects. Controls and typography are highly visible and designed for access through touch interfaces. Regular releases deliver product enhancements and new functionality, eliminating the need for a more traditional migration process to a new product version.

West Community Credit Union, an O'Fallon, Mo., based credit union with more than $150 million in assets and more than 19,000 members, has integrated Corillian Online with its Spectrum[®] core account processing platform as part of its digital banking and payments solution set, which also includes Mobiliti[™] for mobile banking, CheckFree[®] RXP[®], Popmoney[®], TransferNow[®] and AllData[®] PFM, all from Fiserv.

"Corillian Online ASP supports our strategy to maximize what we deliver to members through our home banking channel," said Jason Peach, president and CEO, West Community Credit Union. "We feel confident knowing the solution has the full support and commitment for future investment by Fiserv, and that it can deliver the long-term level of sophistication our members expect.”

Quachita Valley Federal Credit Union, a West Monroe, La., based credit union with more than $200 million in assets and more than 22,000 members, has integrated Corillian Online ASP with its Portico[®] core account processing platform as part of its digital banking and payments solutions for consumers and businesses, which also include Corillian Online[®]: Small Business, Mobiliti, CheckFree RXP, Popmoney, Popmoney[®] for Small Business, TransferNow and AllData PFM, all Fiserv solutions.

“Having Corillian Online ASP will provide our members with the convenience, technology and peace of mind to handle finances at home, on the go, on the job, or while they travel,” said Ron Purdy, vice president, member business lending, Quachita Valley Federal Credit Union. “Partnering with a strong company like Fiserv, we are confident we can deliver a great experience for our members.”

Corillian Online ASP offers capabilities such as Campaign Manager, a marketing tool that enables financial institutions to offer value-added services tailored to consumers’ needs. Other key features include flexible branding and configuration, personal finance management integration, and an integrated self-service option. The service utilizes multi-layered security.

In a world that is moving faster than ever before, Fiserv helps clients deliver solutions that are in step with the way people live and work today – financial services at the speed of life. Learn more at TheSpeedofLife.com.
