Small Businesses from Across U.S. Recognized as CloverAchievers

Contest awards businesses that have a unique story, mission and vision and demonstrate potential for social and community impact, helping them become even better

BROOKFIELD, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Three small businesses across the U.S. will receive a boost after being named CloverAchievers by Clover®, a First Data company that is now part of Fiserv, Inc. Each of the three winning businesses – Ludwig’s German Table (San Jose, California), The Seafood Lady (Louisville, Kentucky), and Harlem Doggie Day Spa (New York) – will receive a combination of a cash grant, a Clover point-of-sale technology and equipment makeover, and a $5,000 donation made in their name to a local approved philanthropic organization of their choice.

CloverAchievers, which launched during National Small Business Week, celebrates the impact small businesses have on the U.S. economy and spotlights business owners who are unique and authentic, passionate about their day-to-day work, and who go above and beyond to achieve success.

“Ludwig’s German Table, The Seafood Lady, and Harlem Doggie Day Spa embody the passion for business and vision for success that we’re proud to empower in all of our clients around the world, every day,” said John Beatty, co-founder of Clover. “These businesses stood out among thousands of impressive applicants for their current success and potential to create great experiences for future customers and positively impact their communities.”

Winners:

Grand Prize Winner ($50,000 value)

- Ludwig’s German Table, San Jose, California
- Owners: Nicole Jacobi & Ben Bate
- www.ludwigssj.com

2nd Place Winner ($30,000 value)

- The Seafood Lady, Louisville, Kentucky
- Owners: Nichelle & Luke Thurston
- www.seafoodlady502.com

3rd Place Winner ($20,000 value)

- Harlem Doggie Day Spa, New York

- Owner: Brian Taylor
- www.harlemdoggiedayspa.com

“We are honored to be named the grand prize winner of CloverAchievers. We can’t wait to use the award and Clover upgrade to grow our business, while also having the opportunity to give back to our community,” said Ben Bate, co-owner and operator of Ludwig’s German Table. “As we open Ludwig’s second location in Mountain View, California, the grant will help cover our startup costs while the new Clover devices enable us to provide our guests with their preferred payment experience.”

To qualify for the contest, small businesses had to be located in the U.S. and have under 1,500 employees. Businesses did not have to be Clover users to apply. The winners were selected based on factors such as their ability to effectively communicate the uniqueness of their personal story and business, their business’ message, mission, and vision, as well as their marketability and potential social/community impact, among other factors.
