Microchip Technology Updates Net Sales and Earnings Guidance for the Third Quarter Fiscal 2010

CHANDLER, Ariz.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Microchip Technology Incorporated (NASDAQ: MCHP), a leading provider of microcontrollers and analog semiconductors, announced today that based on solid bookings and sales activities in October and November that it expects its net sales for its third quarter of fiscal 2010 ending December 31, 2009 to be up 6% to 8% sequentially. Microchip expects GAAP diluted earnings per share to be approximately 29 cents and non-GAAP diluted earnings per share to be approximately 35 cents. On November 4, 2009, Microchip provided guidance of net sales increasing 4% to 8% sequentially, GAAP diluted earnings per share of approximately 27 to 29 cents, and non-GAAP diluted earnings per share of approximately 33 to 35 cents.

"The first two months of our December quarter have progressed nicely and we are narrowing our net sales guidance to the upper half of our previous expectations," said Steve Sanghi, Microchip's President and CEO. "We currently expect gross margins to come in at the high side of our previous guidance and operating expenses to be at the low end of our previous guidance. We continue to see excellent design win traction in our strategic product lines and believe we are positioned well for future market share gains."

No conference call will be held in conjunction with today's press release. Microchip Technology will present at the Credit Suisse First Boston Annual Technology Conference on Tuesday, December 1, 2009 at 9:00 a.m. (Mountain Time). A live webcast and replay of the presentation can be accessed on the Microchip Web site at www.microchip.com. The replay of the webcast will be available for a period of seven days following the presentation.

Non-GAAP adjustments for the third quarter of fiscal 2010 include share-based compensation expense; acquisition-related acquired inventory valuation cost and intangible asset amortization, other acquisition-related expenditures, non-cash interest expense, other non-recurring items in our business and the related income tax implications of these items. The Company is not able to provide a reconciliation of its GAAP and non-GAAP guidance for the quarter ending December 31, 2009 at this time, but will include such reconciliation and related information as part of its earnings announcement.
