Nature’s Sunshine Addresses Spanish Fork Manufacturing Facility Incident

LEHI, Utah, Aug. 27, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Nature’s Sunshine Products, Inc. (Nasdaq: NATR), a leading manufacturer of high-quality herbal and nutritional supplements, announced that an equipment malfunction occurred at their Spanish Fork, Utah manufacturing facility early yesterday morning.

The facility was evacuated and local emergency services were called to the scene to help manage the incident. All personnel are safe and accounted for, and two individuals were seen by EMTs and released to leave the facility. The company is working to determine the cause of the malfunction, which resulted in a small fire, and to assess the extent of the damage to the facility.

“We are extremely thankful for the safety of our team and the efforts of local first responders,” says Terrence Moorehead, Chief Executive Officer of Nature’s Sunshine. “The wellbeing of our people and our community is our top priority, and we pride ourselves on having one of the best manufacturing teams in the industry. We remain committed to maintaining a high standard of excellence in everything we do.”

A portion of the facility will temporarily be closed for repairs while normal operations continue in unaffected areas.
