AMERESCO, GOLD GLOBEE® BUSINESS AWARDS
WINNER

This esteemed awards program celebrates outstanding achievements in business across all industries, sectors, company sizes, and functions. Ameresco was recognized for its success in the energy category highlighting its ongoing commitment to innovation, leadership, and performance excellence.

“Resilient energy infrastructure is foundational to our economy,” said George Sakellaris, President and CEO of Ameresco. “With an aging grid and more frequent power disruptions, our customers need innovative and proven energy solutions that keep critical operations online. This second year of recognition highlights Ameresco’s role in modernizing infrastructure with flexible energy systems. We’re proud to help organizations enhance reliability, manage costs, and accelerate the transition to a more secure energy future, and we are grateful for this honor.”

Through the implementation of their diverse and comprehensive portfolio of energy solutions, Ameresco delivers resilient energy infrastructure that reduces risk, strengthens grid reliability, and advances decarbonization for mission-critical facilities and communities such as schools, hospitals, military bases, data centers, corporate companies, and local governments. Marking its 25th year, Ameresco has delivered over $16 billion in energy solutions since inception and, in 2024 alone, its assets and customer projects offset 17 million metric tons of CO₂.
