Central Garden & Pet Settles Litigation; Receives $26 Million Cash Payment

WALNUT CREEK, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 22, 2006--

Central Garden & Pet Company (NASDAQ:CENT) today announced that the litigation between Central and Herbert and Evelyn Axelrod has been settled. Under the settlement, Central received a cash payment from the Axelrods of $26 million.

In September 2005, a jury found for Central on its claim against the Axelrods for collection of a promissory note that the Axelrods signed in 1997 and for breach of warranty and fraud.

The Company is in the process of completing the accounting for the settlement. Central's preliminary estimate is that the settlement will result in a one-time contribution to operating income of approximately $10 million after consideration of a receivable balance due from the Axelrods of $16 million comprised of note principal and interest and related expenses previously accrued on its financial statements. The Company's previously issued guidance of $2.80-$2.90 earnings per fully diluted share for fiscal 2006 does not include the benefit of this settlement.

"We are pleased to have favorably finalized this litigation," said Glenn Novotny, President and CEO. "We look forward to dedicating all of our energy and resources toward building the Company and increasing shareholder value."
