Herbalife Brings on New Country Manager for Indonesia

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Herbalife Ltd. (NYSE:HLF) has hired Agung Karso Sardjono as general manager of its Indonesia operations, responsible for expanding the company's operations and working closely with its distributor leadership. He will report to Vice President, Southeast Asia Edi Hienrich.

Sardjono has 17 years of direct selling experience with leading companies. He spent 15 years at Avon Indonesia, where he started as a management trainee and ultimately became the first Indonesian president director, as well as serving on the company's board.

Prior to joining Herbalife, Sardjono was the general manager of PT Nusa Selaras Indonesia (NuSkin), where he helped establish the multilevel marketing company as an industry leader.

Sardjono serves as vice chairman of the Indonesia Direct Selling Association. He holds a civil engineering degree from the Institute Technology 10 Nopember Surabaya and a MBA in finance from Wijawiyata Management of IPPM in Jakarta.
