The Ketchum-Downtown YMCA Stair Climb and Urban Hike is one of Downtown Los Angeles' largest fundraising events with 100% of the proceeds benefiting community programs that foster education and healthy lifestyle habits for youth and teens in the area.

"The Ketchum-Downtown YMCA Stair Climb and Urban Hike has become a tradition for us at Herbalife.

Supporting this event and the Ketchum YMCA each year brings our employees and local community together – aligning perfectly with our mission to promote health and well-being," said Frank Lamberti, Chief Commercial Officer at Herbalife. "Seeing our team members tackle the climb and hike through iconic landmarks is truly inspiring. We are committed to supporting impactful events like these, both in our own backyard and globally, that empower communities.”

Herbalife’s participation in events like the Ketchum-Downtown YMCA Star Climb and Urban Hike is part of the company’s commitment to empower communities and foster health and wellness through impactful experiences. In addition to their partnership with the YMCA, Herbalife, through the Herbalife Family Foundation \(HFF\), supports numerous charities around the world, including A Place Called Home, Children’s Institute Inc., Heart of Los Angeles (HOLA), and the Union Rescue Mission here in Los Angeles.

Since 2005, HFF, with the support of Herbalife team members and independent distributors, has awarded over $50 million to community organizations globally. The organization has also supported over 175 nonprofits, including hospitals, orphanages, school, and more, across more than 60 countries.
