Dubbed “the internet’s wealthy best friend,” Morgan Stewart has earned a cult-like fanbase by letting her fans in on the secrets of the elite, and quickly has become a voice they not only love, but unequivocally trust. Whether it’s her own brand, Renggli, or Chanel ballet flats, if Morgan Stewart wears something, it sells out.

Now, she’s bringing that powerful influence to podcasting, where she will pull her audience into her real world – one that isn’t always defined by glitz and glamour, but rather by lessons she’s learned in motherhood, the family tragedies she’s endured, hilarious stories from her friend group, and the perspective she’s gained from two decades in the spotlight. Nothing is off limits, and Stewart tells it the way she always has: unfiltered and funny, yet deeply real.

“After years of putting this off, I’ve finally decided to launch a podcast,” shared Morgan Stewart. “I wanted a space that feels unfiltered, elevated, and actually worth your time – where we can talk about what’s really going on, what we’re obsessing over, and everything in between.”

“Morgan Stewart doesn’t hold back, and that’s exactly why her devoted audience shows up,” said Adam Sachs, SVP of Podcast Content at SiriusXM. “We’re excited to give Morgan a mic and a platform to share her stories, her style, and her perspective every week in the hilarious, irreverent way that only she can. Her new podcast will be just as intimate and compelling as her online presence.”

“The Morgan Stewart Show” will be distributed on the SiriusXM Podcast Network, and SiriusXM Media, the company’s advertising division, will have exclusive ad sales rights to the podcast. With a diverse portfolio that spans comedy, true crime, wellness, business, and entertainment programming, the SiriusXM Podcast Network represents more of the top 20 podcasts than any other network according to Edison Research, reaching 1 in 2 podcast listeners in the US each month.

“The Morgan Stewart Show” is produced by SiriusXM and Morgan Stewart. The show's Producer is Judith Kargbo. Music and audio engineering done by Brendan Byrnes. Executive Producers are Codi Fischer and Adam Sachs.
