Concentra Expands Arizona Presence with New Goodyear Medical Center

New Goodyear medical center brings Concentra's Arizona footprint to 17 locations, increasing access to occupational health services

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Concentra® (NYSE: CON), the nation's leader in occupational and workforce health services, today announced the opening of its first medical center in Goodyear, Arizona, expanding access to occupational health services for employers and employees throughout the West Valley. The new facility is in Pebble Creek Plaza Shops at 2403 North Pebble Creek Parkway, Suite 101, Goodyear, Arizona 85395.

The new medical center, located in one of Arizona's growing industrial areas, will provide occupational health services for employers across a wide array of industries, including logistics, transportation, manufacturing, warehousing, distribution and construction. The facility is intended to help address workplace health and safety needs across the region.

"The West Valley continues to see significant growth across a range of industries, and access to occupational health services is an important part of supporting that workforce," said Dr. Scott Cole, senior vice president of medical operations at Concentra. "This medical center allows us to provide care closer to where employees live and work while helping employers address workplace health needs in a timely manner."

The medical center will provide a comprehensive suite of workforce health services, including work injury care, physical therapy, drug testing, Department of Transportation physicals, pre-placement exams, and medical surveillance programs. Employers will also have access to Concentra HUB, the company's digital-enabled platform that streamlines injury management and communication.

As Arizona continues to experience growth across key industries, employers increasingly need workforce health partners that can help reduce workplace injuries, support compliance and accelerate return-to-work outcomes. With more than four decades of experience in occupational health, Concentra helps employers build healthier, safer and more productive workforces through coordinated workforce health solutions that meet the needs of employers and their employees at convenient times and locations.
