Galaxy Gaming to Have Unprecedented Participation at ICE Totally Gaming 2014 in London

Las Vegas-Based Gaming Company and Worldwide Leader to Have Major Role at Europe's Largest and Most Comprehensive Industry Trade Event

LAS VEGAS, Jan. 29, 2014 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Galaxy Gaming (OTC:GLXZ) announced it will be a full participant at Europe's largest and most wide-ranging conference in its industry – the International Casino Exposition a.k.a. ICE Totally Gaming 2014, in London on February 3 - 6, 2014.

"Each year that we have exhibited at ICE, our presence increases and so does the amount of orders we receive from this important event," said Galaxy Gaming CEO Robert Saucier. "This year, we have made the greatest commitment ever to ICE and have increased our presence at this event by more than double the floor space compared to last year. Galaxy Gaming is the largest supplier of table game content in the U.K. having established a presence in all 143 casinos. However, we are not complacent or content and will now target new territories throughout Europe and expand our footprint there," added Mr. Saucier.

"Confidence in Galaxy Gaming extends to both players and casino operators," said Lewis Wright, the company's top representative in the U.K. "The company has built a rock-solid relationship here because of the enjoyment of Galaxy's products and the longevity of their relationship to the customer base."

The ICE Totally Gaming Conference was launched in 1991 and will achieve its largest-ever participation this year, featuring gaming experts, casino owners, operators, regulators, staff and even players, as well as more than 500 exhibiting companies from 57 different countries.

"Our company has made a commitment to international growth – and it is paying off," said Gary A. Vecchiarelli, Galaxy Gaming's Chief Financial Officer. "We are seeing real results growing stronger every day."
