Marcus & Millichap Launches New Company Website

Enhanced functionality designed to serve evolving needs of today's commercial real estate investors

CALABASAS, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Marcus & Millichap (NYSE: MMI), a leading commercial real estate investment services firm with offices throughout the United States and Canada, announced today the launch of its new company website, www.marcusmillichap.com.

"Marcus & Millichap has been a pioneer in real estate technology since 1971," says John J. Kerin, president and CEO of Marcus & Millichap. "Our new website is a reflection of our culture of information sharing and commitment to offering the most efficient system of matching buyers and sellers in the investment marketplace."

The new www.marcusmillichap.com includes many added enhancements and features designed with ease of use, precise navigation and efficient information delivery in mind. These include:

- Enhanced property search of more than $8 billion in listings
- Faster connection to the firm's more than 1,300 investment professionals in 76 offices across the U.S. and Canada
- Bold new national branding
- More actionable information, research and data on national, regional and local investment markets

"Marcus & Millichap was one of the first companies to embrace the power of the Internet and our new website is another important addition to the suite of proprietary tools we provide to our brokers and clients," says Hessam Nadji, senior vice president and chief strategy officer.

Richard Peltz, senior vice president and chief information officer, affirms the value of the enhanced platform. "We have built a dynamic and robust content management system and search tools to help investors access our research, professionals and investment opportunities as efficiently as possible," says Peltz.

Marcus & Millichap is a recognized pioneer and leader in developing new technologies to serve the commercial real estate investment market. Recently the firm was recognized as one of the Elite 100 firms in the U.S. by InformationWeek, based on its technological achievements in 2013. The award was the ninth consecutive year in which Marcus & Millichap earned the publication's top distinction.
