COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Intellinetics, Inc. (OTCQB: INLX), formerly called GlobalWise Investments, Inc., a leading-edge technology company focused on the design, implementation and management of cloud-based Enterprise Content Management systems in both the public and private sectors, announced the implementation of two corporate actions: a name change to "Intellinetics, Inc." and a reverse stock split in the ratio of 7-to-1.

Name Change

Previously approved by the shareholders at the August 6, 2014 shareholder meeting, the Company's change of name to Intellinetics, Inc. was made effective by the Nevada Secretary of State on September 1, and reflected by the OTCQB on September 3, 2014. Anticipating the corporate name change, the Company's shares began trading under its new OTCQB stock symbol, INLX, on August 1, 2014.

Reverse Stock Split

Also approved by the shareholders at the August 6, 2014 shareholder meeting, the Company's reverse stock split in the ratio of 7-to-1 was made effective by the Nevada Secretary of State on September 1, and reflected by the OTCQB on September 3, 2014. The Company implemented the reverse split to improve the liquidity and marketability of the Company's common stock, and to better respond to potential future opportunities to raise capital, based upon future developments in the business affairs of the Company, the market and the economy.
