Intellinetics, Inc. Enters Into a Three-Year IntelliCloud™ Sales Agreement With Titan Machinery, Inc.

COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Intellinetics, Inc. (OTCQB: INLX), a leading-edge technology company focused on implementation and management of IntelliCloud™, its proprietary cloud-based Enterprise Content Management (ECM) platform, today announced that it had entered into a three-year sales agreement with Titan Machinery, Inc. (NASDAQ: TITN). Titan will initially use IntelliCloud to automate and securely archive documents that drive sales and accounts receivable processes.

IntelliCloud is Intellinetics' cloud-based platform that lets users easily capture documents, connect them to business-critical processes making them easy to find, secure and compliant.

Nathan Johnson, IT Director for Titan, said, "Titan Machinery searched the market for the right team to provide cloud-based content management to enable strategic transformations within our business and service operations. Intellinetics, together with proven local partner Laser Systems, was the clear choice for us. Intellinetics provides mission-critical solutions experience, a robust and scalable cloud-based platform and excellent resources to help meet our goals. We couldn't ask for more."

Matthew L. Chretien, CEO of Intellinetics, said, "As we move our document management business further into a cloud-based format, it is more than encouraging to receive this validating order from Titan, a multibillion-dollar company. Titan had its choice of products and systems and put us through rigorous trials and tests before entering into this agreement with us."

IntelliCloud™ – Powered by the Intel® NUC

The Intellinetics' IntelliCloud Program provides turnkey document workflow solutions through a growing network of partners who target the mid-market. Partners simply attach IntelliCloud to the software, hardware, and/or services they already sell to existing customers and deliver more value to the customer and create new / recurring revenue streams for themselves... and us, all without the sales or technical complexity of other less effective options in the market. See Intel.com/IntelliCloud for additional Program information.
