Intellinetics Partners with Field2Base, a Leading Cloud Mobility Provider, Integrating Both Technology and Distribution Channels to Drive Growth

Intellinetics and Field2Base, Inc. Provide Enterprise Class Solution to Facilitate Forms Automation and Digital Document Storage & Retrieval for Multi-Billion Dollar Agriculture Company

COLUMBUS, Ohio--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Intellinetics, Inc., (OTCQB: INLX), a cloud-based document solutions provider, has integrated its flagship IntelliCloud™ platform with Field2Base's industry-leading Field Service Automation (FSA) suite.

The combined solution merges in-field and back-office documents and workflow, creating an end-to-end process allowing customers of any size to truly go paperless in the field. An authorized Verizon Wireless partner, Field2Base supports tens of thousands of end-users within Small, Mid-Market and Fortune 500 Business customers.

Matthew L. Chretien, President, and CEO of Intellinetics, stated, "This partnership marks a critical milestone, advancing our expanded focus to establish best-in-class, cloud-based technology partners to integrate IntelliCloud into their products and services to fill their unmet needs within high growth markets. Today, mobility is exploding and finding the right partner in this space was a top priority for us. Field2Base was a clear choice because it has award-winning technology, a passion for innovation and customer service, strong business and technology leadership and the law enforcement grade security our clients demand."

Matthew Lockridge, Chief Operating Officer of Field2Base, said, "Our alliance with Intellinetics and our integration with IntelliCloud means that now we can support a broader set of customer needs by combining back-office documents and workflow into a field-based user experience within a unified framework. The first joint customer activation was completed earlier this month in one of our enterprise accounts (a multi-billion dollar agriculture company), providing mobile users real-time access to related inspection documents within a form. With the press of a button, they now get what they need."

Lockridge continued, "Expansion planning is already underway as the solution has met or exceeded all expectations. The Intellinetics technology platform is powerful and the leadership, technology and service teams are focused. We and our first joint customer are very impressed. We anticipate big things together going forward."

The two companies are also rolling out first phase cross-marketing of the new integrated solution into existing customer bases and reseller channels.
