Maxwell Appointed General Sales Manager for Salem New York

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Salem Communications (Nasdaq:SALM) has announced the appointment of Tamela Kay ("TK") Maxwell as general sales manager for Salem New York which includes New York's InspiringTalk stations WMCA 570 AM and WWDJ 970 AM. Effective immediately, Maxwell has responsibility for overseeing sales, marketing and promotion in the New York metropolitan area, the nation's largest media market.

"TK Maxwell has been an integral part of our New York team," said Susan Lucchesi, general manager for Salem New York. "She brings considerable experience at both local and national levels to our sales efforts in this market. Her passion for excellence will serve our stations and listeners well."

Maxwell has been senior account executive with Salem New York since 2004. Her 18 years experience in the New York market includes marketing and sales positions with United Stations Radio Networks where she was director of marketing and Clear Channel Communications where she was national account manager. Maxwell is best known for her success as marketing manager for Metro Networks Inc. and director of Eastern regional sales for Shadow Broadcast Services.

A resident of Allendale, New Jersey, Maxwell earned her B.A. in Broadcast Journalism from University of Northern Colorado. For more information about WMCA personalities and programming go to www.wmca.com.
