

May 9, 2007

Acclaimed Author and Syndicated Talk Host Bill Bennett Stops in Atlanta

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Bill Bennett, renowned author/historian and Salem Radio Network talk host, makes a brief tour to Atlanta Friday, May 11. Bill Bennett's Morning in America will broadcast live from the state capitol building during his regular 6-9 a.m. time slot on 920 AM WGKA, Atlanta's News, Talk and Information Station. Gov. Sonny Perdue will be his featured guest during the 8:00 hour. Following the broadcast, Bennett will make a guest appearance at the Buckhead Barnes & Noble from 10 - 11:30 a.m. for a book signing of his new release, 'America: The Last Best Hope (Volume 2).'

As host of the popular nationally syndicated Salem radio program 'Morning in America,' Bennett features headline-making guests from politics, media, sports and entertainment. Bennett, who served as secretary of education under Ronald Reagan and director of the Office of National Drug Control Policy under George H.W. Bush, has become one of the most influential forces on the nation's social and political landscape. His second volume sequel traces the political and military history of America from WWI through the end of the Reagan presidency. The Buckhead Barnes & Noble is located at 2900 Peachtree Road, Suite 310, Atlanta 30305

In addition to 920 AM WGKA, the Salem Atlanta cluster includes 104.7 KFSH The Fish and WNIV AM 970 & 1400 Atlanta's Christian Talk. Salem Communications is a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider and magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and family-themed content and conservative values. In addition to its radio properties, Salem owns Salem Radio Network(R), Salem Radio Representatives(TM); and Salem Web Network(TM). Additional information about Salem may be accessed at the company's website, www.salem.cc.

Source: Salem Communications