

May 23, 2007

Scott Cohagan Appointed General Manager for Salem Boston

BOSTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Salem Communications announces the appointment of Scott Cohagan as general manager for Salem Radio Group Boston, effective immediately. Cohagan will oversee operations of the three-station radio cluster which includes Boston's Conservative Talk 1150 WTTT, 590 AM WEZE The Word, and The Spirit of Boston 590 AM WROL.

"Scott Cohagan brings a solid record of achievement in radio management and operations to our Boston stations," said Michael Reichert, vice president of operations for Salem Communications. "His creative approach to leadership, sales and team building enables us to strengthen our relationships with listeners and businesses throughout the Boston community."

Cohagan joins Salem Boston following several years with Forever Broadcasting in Pennsylvania where he served as market manager, station manager and general sales manager in a variety of markets. He also served as an account executive for Entercom Communications' in Scranton, Penn. Cohagan holds a bachelor of business administration from Kent State University.

Salem Communications (NASDAQ:SALM) is a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and family-themed content and conservative values. The company owns and operates approximately 100 radio stations, including 61 stations in 23 of the top 25 markets. Additional information about Salem may be accessed at the company's website, www.salem.cc.

Source: Salem Communications