Betsy Coffey Joins Salem Web Network

RICHMOND, VA -- (MARKET WIRE) -- 01/26/11 -- Salem Web Network (NASDAQ: SALM), the online division of Salem Communications, is pleased to announce that Betsy Coffey has joined the company as Ministry Media Executive. Salem Communications is the nation's leading radio broadcaster, Internet content provider and publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian family-themed content.

Coffey will develop and manage client relationships with national Christian ministries and organizations, and the media veteran will work to increase the presence of broadcasting ministries on Salem's online broadcasting platforms, OnePlace.com and elSitioCristiano.com, while enabling the company to provide a higher level of service to existing ministry partners.

Prior to joining Salem Web Network, Betsy spent 15 working in media at Merkle Inc., formerly Domain Group, most recently as Manager of Media Services, where her strong experience of media channels helped fuel the marketing and fundraising efforts of clients including Prison Fellowship, Josh McDowell, Concerned Women for America, The Word Today, Bible League, Christianbook.com, and many more.

"Betsy has been working alongside ministry clients since 1995, and is uniquely in tune with the needs of our current and prospective online broadcasting partners," said Tom Perrault, Senior Vice President of Salem Web Network. "We are excited about her wealth of experience, proven track record in building client support and donors, and the high regard past and current clients have for her."

Travis Messer, Salem Web's Director of Ministry Media, said, "Bringing aboard someone with Betsy's background will really help us take our ministry relationships to the next level, while also developing new and improved platforms and programs to help these partners succeed within our network."
