Salem Communications Increases Quarterly Cash Distribution by 43%

CAMARILLO, CA -- (Marketwire) -- 03/18/13 -- Salem Communications Corporation (NASDAQ: SALM), a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, and magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and conservative opinion content, announced that its Board of Directors has increased its quarterly cash distribution from $0.035 per share to $0.05 per share. The cash distribution will be paid on April 1, 2013 to all Class A and Class B common stockholders of record as of March 25, 2013.

Edward G. Atsinger III, Chief Executive Officer of Salem Communications, said, "The decision of our board to increase our cash distribution will be welcome news to shareholders and other stakeholders. The 2013 distribution represents less than 20% of our expected free cash flow for the year. This meaningful increase is due to the growth in free cash flow that we expect in 2013 as a result of our stable business performance and substantial reduction in interest expense from our recently completed refinancing."

Salem Communications Corporation is the largest commercial U.S. radio broadcasting company that provides programming targeted at audiences interested in Christian and conservative opinion radio content, as measured by the number of stations and audience coverage. Upon completion of all announced transactions, the company will own and/or operate a national portfolio of 99 radio stations in 38 markets, including 61 stations in 22 of the top 25 markets.
