ABOUT TONI KING:

While conducting a Medicare workshop in 2009, Toni was approached by a member of the audience who had received incorrect information about his Medicare Part B enrollment from Social Security. After taking a couple of days to help the gentleman straighten out his overwhelming problem, Toni's new mission had become clear. Following more than 27 years as a top sales leader in the Medicare insurance industry, Toni King became an advocate for Americans receiving Medicare. Toni has devoted her life and career to putting Medicare into "people terms" with the help of her books, consultations, workshops, and now, her partnership with Salem Media Group and SeniorResource.com. Toni King's newest book, Medicare Survival Guide Advanced: Basics and Beyond is now available.
