“Sometimes people think that the Bible is just for adults, but God actually really wants kids to know about Him,” Rachael Groll said. “On this podcast, we are going to learn all about God’s big story and how he shows Himself to us through the Bible.”

The pilot episode, available on all podcast platforms, uncovers hidden stories of brave heroes, epic battles, and amazing miracles that set the stage for the arrival of Jesus.

ABOUT RACHAEL GROLL:

Rachael Groll is the host of the Hearing Jesus podcast, one of Apple Podcasts’ most successful shows. As a pastor, missionary and author, her greatest calling in life is to help women learn how to hear the Lord more clearly in their lives. Rachael has served both locally and globally, focusing on evangelism and discipleship, and counts it a privilege to share God's Word on the podcast every week. Rachael has her undergraduate degree in Ministerial Leadership from Southeastern University and received her MA in Bible Exposition at Biola University in May. Rachael is the author of She Hears: Learning to Listen to Jesus as well as numerous other titles. She and her husband, Tim, live in rural Pennsylvania and have three beautiful daughters.
