- (A) Significant changes may occur subsequent to the period presented. This schedule will be updated when new financial statements are filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Cumulative cash investment and cash proceeds are adjusted in the quarter following the quarter in which strategic investments are sold or written off, loans are repaid in full or investees liquidate.
- (B) Unfunded commitments do not include liabilities accrued on the Company's balance sheet or paid into escrow at the end of the quarter.
- (C) Reflects cash amounts funded and not recorded book values.
- (D) Cash proceeds for marketable equity securities reflect cash received for securities sold.
- (E) Cumulative cash investment and cash proceeds are reclassified to marketable securities in the quarter in which those investments become publicly traded.
- (F) The India spectrum subsidiaries, which are included in Qualcomm's consolidated financial statements, were established to operate a wireless network on the BWA spectrum won in India. Cumulative cash investment represents the cash contributed by Qualcomm in the second quarter of fiscal 2011 for its equity interests in the India spectrum subsidiaries (51% at December 30, 2012). The India spectrum subsidiaries have loans and debentures in the aggregate of $1.04 billion at December 30, 2012, which are guaranteed and indemnified, respectively, by Qualcomm Incorporated and one of its wholly-owned subsidiaries.
