Climb Channel Solutions Adds Trend Micro to Cyber Security Offerings

EATONTOWN, N.J., Aug. 25, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Climb Channel Solutions, an international specialty technology distributor, will begin to distribute Trend Micro's powerhouse cyber security solutions to its US and Canadian partner base. The addition comes as a result of the recent acquisition of Interwork Technology by Wayside Technology Group, Inc.

Over the last three decades, Trend Micro became a market leader in endpoint security, cloud security, and server security, and is highly recommended for Breach Detection and Intrusion Prevention Systems.

With more than a billion dollars in revenue every year, over 6,500 employees focused solely on information, highly innovative business approach, Trend Micro consistently delivers advanced threat intelligence and protection you can count on.

"Interwork brings an exceptional addition to Climb with Trend Micro. The similarities in distribution built on servicing clients with a differentiated, high-touch approach, is ensured to bring continued success for all parties involved," said Dale Foster, CEO of Wayside.

Moving forward, we remain dedicated to Trend Micro customers in demonstrating why Trend Micro is the preferred partner for your customer's cyber-attack security solutions.

"Strategic channel partnerships are a top priority for Trend Micro and we are glad to be featured in Climb's MSP, SMB and Enterprise security portfolio. We look forward to helping organizations increase their cyber security posture by providing layered security for data centers, cloud environments, networks, and endpoints," added Jeff Van Natter, Trend Micro Director of Distribution.

As we continue to join the Climb Channel Solutions team, we look forward to sharing more of our expertise in cybersecurity to better support growth and success.
