Vuzix to Highlight Key OEM & Waveguide Manufacturing Capabilities at Vision Expo West 2025

ROCHESTER, N.Y., Sept. 15, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Vuzix® Corporation (NASDAQ: VUZI), ("Vuzix" or, the "Company"), a leading supplier of AI-powered smart glasses, waveguides and Augmented Reality (AR) technologies, is pleased to announce that the Company will be participating in the following trade show this week:

September 17-20 Vision Expo West 2025
The Venetian Expo, 201 Sands Avenue
Las Vegas, NV

Vuzix will be attending Vision Expo West 2025 in Las Vegas this year and welcomes the opportunity to connect with industry leaders across the eyewear ecosystem. As a US-based developer and manufacturer of smart glasses with a 25+ year legacy in augmented reality, Vuzix has shipped multiple generations of waveguide-enabled AR eyewear since 2018. With mass adoption of smart glasses poised to reshape the vision care landscape, Vuzix is actively collaborating with a variety of industry leaders to ensure that design, lens integration, and processing requirements are met at scale. Whether it's integrating Rx lenses, supporting private-label platforms, or aligning with lens surfacing workflows, Vuzix is working to create solutions that bridge eyewear and electronics seamlessly.

To schedule a meeting and learn more about the Company's OEM smart glasses platforms, display systems, or collaboration models, please contact Andrew Shih at andrew_shih@vuzix.com to connect during the show.
