Animal Welfare Commitment

At Norwegian Cruise Line Holdings Ltd. (the “Company”), we are committed to driving a positive impact on society and the environment, while delivering on our vision to be the vacation of choice for everyone around the world. We visit nearly 500 destinations globally, allowing our guests to travel and explore the world. Our business is inextricably linked to the preservation of our planet and the protection of our shared resources, and such, our commitment extends to our network of over 30,000 suppliers globally.

The Company is deeply committed to sourcing safe, high-quality food. Doing so includes the proper treatment of animals throughout our supply chain. We collaborate with suppliers to establish our expectations of ethical, legal, and humane treatment of animals. We require our suppliers to follow all regulations and laws governing the safe and humane treatment of animals. We expect our suppliers to pursue and adopt methods and technologies to improve welfare for animals.

At the Company, we expect our business partners to comply with our Supplier Code of Conduct and to follow the laws and regulations that apply to them in every country applicable. Further emphasizing this, our suppliers are expected to conduct themselves with high ethical standards and with an outlook of continuous improvement.

To help guide our approach, we engage with animal welfare experts, researchers, industry organizations, and others to integrate new learning, updated standards, and technological advancements into our understanding of the humane treatment of animals.

We are actively engaged with our suppliers, raising our standards for animal welfare through the purchase of cage free eggs and improving standards that affect the welfare of chickens and pigs. We also partner with ocean welfare organizations to support and sustain ocean life and are committed to purchasing seafood from certified sustainable sources.
